POSSIBILITIES OF MINING.

Commercial Aspect of Industry Receive More Attention.

John Hayes Hamond, the noted expert, talks on the possibilities of mining in a New York paper as follows:

"The possibilities of the mining industry are better appreciated every year, as the actual returns secured from prior operations demonstrate the profitability of the venture. Today greater care than was formerly the case is exercised in choosing properties for development, so that the risk involved may be reduced to a minimum; and mining engineers have more regard for the commercial aspects of mining than heretofore. They are learning to discriminate between the so-called 'gilt-edge' mining proposition and one of a more speculative character.

"In the former class of mining the expert aims to be assured of the certainty of the capital invested being returned with a reasonable rate of interest. In mines belonging to the speculative class, there is, of course, greater risk of losing the capital invested, but far greater returns in the way of profit in case the investment turns out favorably.

"Either of these classes of mining is perfectly legitimate, but in the prospectus of the company, the category under which the investment is made should be fully stated to the investor."

Look Out for Him.

H. Raymond Fish, who with his wife was in Elko on the 16th, of last month, is a crook and is wanted here for passing a worthless check on the Superior Filter Works of Louisville, Kentucky.

Fish represented that he was connected with that company and had papers showing that he was privileged to draw on it. On receiving a draft on the company, Mr. Owens, at whose hotel Fish and his wife stopped several days gave him $25. A few days since the draft was returned to Mr. Owens with a protest against the drawer and endorsers for exchange and interest suffered and sustained by reason of non payment of said draft. Fish has not been in the employ of the company since October, 1904. The present whereabouts of Fish and his wife is unknown. He took an eastbound train from Elko on the 18th of last month. He came here from Reno.—Free Press.

The present monthly pay roll at Sparks of the shop force alone is $20,000, says the Dispatch, while the engine and train crews receive double that amount and the section and reconstruction crews receive $10,000, making a total of $70,000 distributed monthly to railroad employees. It is not improbable that this amount will nearly double within the next few months.
